Dive deep into social justice

Are you interested in social justice? If so, apply now to attend the Transcend Auraria Social Justice Retreat, Jan. 20-22, 2017 at Ponderosa Center in Larkspur, CO. The retreat is a tri-institutional collaboration between Community College of Denver, Metropolitan State University of Denver, and University of Colorado Denver.

The purpose of this retreat for the Auraria campus is to create a safe space for students of all backgrounds to deepen their exploration and understanding of issues related to diversity, inclusion, identity, power, privilege and oppression. Participants will have an opportunity to engage in personal identity exploration, while developing a personal commitment to equity and social justice on the Auraria Campus and within students' communities.

If you are interested in finding out more about this retreat, please visit our website. Student applications are due by 11:59 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 30.

If you have any questions please feel free to contact Alejandra Nevarez, the Graduate Assistant for the CU Denver Educational Opportunity Programs office at 303-315-1884.
